POLICEMAN TOMLIN PARALYZED .- Officer Rebett Temlin, one of the oldest and most rehable members of the policy teres of this eny, did not answer to his name when the list of officers to go on duly was called Monday cight. Nothing was thought of his absence until gracerd v morning when he appeared at police headquarters to testify in some case. His baggared, look and strange conduct at this time attracted attention, but nothing was said to him by his follow officers. When the case was esseluded Mr. Tomlin returned to his home. tlere his family saw that something unusual was the matter with bim, and upon asking him come questions is was found that his memory was entirely gone. The family physician, who was immediately sent for, after an examination prenoused that Mr. Tombie was suffering from paralysis of the brain. The news of Mr. Tomno's misfortune will be received with sorrow. not only by his companions on the police force, but by a large number of old friends, and his recovery is haped for.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATIONS. -The Christmas celebrations of the M. E. Church and the M. E. Church South, will take place to-night. The celebration of the Scend Prechyteriae Church Sunday School will take place to-morrow night, and that of the First Presbyterian Church Friday night, The Christmas entertelement of the Baptist Sunday School will also be held in the main audience room of the Baptis Church on Friday evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The celebration of the Sucday School of St. Mary's Church, which took place at St. Mary's Hall yesterday evening, was such a success that it will be repeated to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock for the benefit of the school. The Christmas entertainment of the Sunday School of St. John's Chapel in West End took place fast night, and was a most PISTOL ACCIDENTS -A young man nam d Julian Simpson, while handling a pistol Sanday night, dropped the leaded cylinder, which expleded, one of the balls taking effect in his hip, citting a painful but not serious wound.

Dannis Kennedy, on a visit to this city from Altono, Pa, had one of his fingers on the left hand quite badly injured by the premature explosion of a pistol to was about to fire on Monday last.

"GETTING BETTER."-Rev. J. W. Webb. colored, furnishes the following report of his Christmas work: "The Beulah Baptist Church, at Markham, was largely attended last Sunday, the 25th inst, without a disagreeable word or a fight. Some years ago this was impossible. The service we conducted by Kev. J. W. Wobb, the pastor. He rode on horseback to Salem and preached at night. For Christmas presents he received ?) in money and articles valued at $10."

ARRIVAL OF THE LEARY .- The steamer George Leary, Capt. R. E. Fall, of the Potomsc Steamboat Company's line, which has been un-dergoing repairs in Baltimore during the past two months, passed by this city yesterday even-ing on her way to Washington. The Leary which has been thoroughly overhauled and repainted presents a very handsome appearance. She will go on the Norfolk route to-morrow evening. A World of Good.

One of the most popular medicines now before the American public, is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it with good effect. It builds them up. It is not as pleasant to the taste as some other Bitters as it is not a whiskey drink. It is more the old fashloned bone set tea that has done a world of good. If you don't feel just right try Hop Bitters .- Nunda News,
